Introduction

Participants are required to express their interpretation of the theme "Unity in Diversity" through mural painting. In line with the concept of diversity, the mural must be created using a combination of two mediums ONLY (e.g., acrylic paint + paper collage, emulsion paint + organic materials, acrylic paint + fabric, etc..) that is to be attached and displayed on the base panel board. The panel board will be displayed in an upright position, similar to a wall elevation.

The use of mixed media is essential, and the chosen materials must be thoughtfully combine within the given panel sizes. The final artwork should appear harmonious and cohesive, with all the elements blending in seamlessly to convey a clear and compelling narrative.

The inclusion of 3D textures on the panel is also acceptable and encouraged as long as it supports the overall theme and visual integrity of the mural.

THEME

ASEAN
Unity In Diversity

In conjunction with Malaysia's ASEAN Chairmanship 2025, the Kuala Lumpur Park Festival 2025 adopts the theme "ASEAN Unity in Diversity." The festival will showcase the cultural and heritage richness of Malaysia, while highlighting the beauty of gardens, sculptures, plants, products, and landscape designs from ASEAN member countries. This edition will present a more global dimension with an international prestige, celebrating excellence in landscape and environmental design at the world stage.

Participants

1. Open to undergraduate and postgraduate students enrolled in any university within the ASEAN region.
2. Each group must consist of up to 3 students from the same institution.
3. RM150 will be given to the each group or institution for competition preparation. This incentive will be credited to the group within 45 days after end of KL Park Festival 2025.
